2. COMMUNICATIONS:

- A. MAYORS'S REPORT- Mayor Suggs said that December was a busy month. He hoped everyone had a good Christmas. The Christmas Tree Lighting and Parade went well. The Loris Garden Club recognized the public Works Department with Christmas lunch. Mayor Suggs thanked the Garden Club for recognizing our staff. Congratulations to the Loris High School football team for a great season. There was software issue when printing water bills. Because of this issue, no late fees will be assessed. Water bills will be in the post card format moving forward. We hope this will eliminate some printing issues and save the city some money on postage. On December 11th, the Mayor attended the McLeod Health Legislative Luncheon. A presentation was made about the expansion of services. This was a nice event with a lot of discussion. McLeod gave a generous donation to the Loris Fire Department. The equipment needed for medical calls was presented by Director of McLeod Health Loris, Scott Montgomery. Mayor Suggs, Administrator Young, and Attorney Zilinsky met with Santee Cooper on December 16th about franchise fees. They also provided information on the new rate structure. Canfor Southern Pine Inc. donated to the Loris Fire Department. The annual fire extinguisher inspections will be conducted on January 14th.

B. ADMINISTRATOR'S REPORT

- 1. DECEMBER MONTHLY FINANCE REPORT- Administrator Young said that the monthly report was in the Council packet. Work on the budget for the next fiscal year will begin in January.
