2. COMMUNICATIONS:

- A. MAYORS'S REPORT- Mayor Suggs said that the city had a rare snowstorm, and he hoped that everyone enjoyed it. He thanked employees in all departments that were on call and ready to assist. The Loris Police Department and the Loris Fire Department were working all week to ensure the safety of our citizens. Mayor Suggs thanked Meredith Holmes and Roy Cox for assisting with clearing the sidewalks and entryways around city hall. The demolition at the old Loris High School began. Mayor Suggs attended the Myrtle Beach Economic Development Corporation's Annual Meeting at the Briarcliffe Conference Center. There was a large crowd from all over Horry County. The MBEDC had an industry awareness class in Loris last week. There were first time visitors to Loris in the group. McLeod Loris provided lunch for the event. The Valentines Decoration should be in soon. Mayor Suggs reminded the council members that their Annual Economic Interest Surveys are due in March.

Samantha Norris, Executive Director of the Loris Chamber of Commerce, said that the Loris Chamber of Commerce is currently preparing for the Small Town, Big Show Car Show on April 19, 2025. The Loris Bog-off Festival will be on October 18, 2025. On February 21, 2025, there will be a Grand Opening Ceremony at the new DR Horton Development. The Loris Chamber of Commerce is planning to bring back the annual awards ceremony this year. They are also working on completing the new relocation guide and ask the city to submit any information that they would like to have included.

B. ADMINISTRATOR'S REPORT

- 1. JANUARY MONTHLY FINANCE REPORT- Administrator Young said that the January monthly report was in the Council packet. Work on the budget for the next fiscal year will begin soon. He plans to distribute information to department heads this month.
